

CLIENT: Before we begin, please read this agreement. This will let us know that you have read and that you understand what is written here. This form will ask you about your present condition for which you seek membership support as well as any other issues you might have. It also sets out the context in which you will get the outcome you want. It also covers some of the issues of law governing our relationship.

Responsibilities:

1. Coach agrees to maintain integrity and morals that best serve the Client.
2. Client is responsible for creating and implementing his/her/their own physical, mental and emotional well-being, decisions, choices, actions and results. As such, the Client agrees that the Coach is not and will not be liable for any actions or inaction, or for any direct or indirect result of any services provided by the Coach. Client understands coaching is not therapy and does not substitute for therapy if needed, and does not prevent, cure, or treat any mental disorder or medical disease.
3. Client understands that coaching is a complementary approach and not to be used as a substitute for professional advice by legal, mental, medical or other qualified professionals and will seek independent professional guidance for such matters. If Client is currently under the care of a mental health professional, Coach will recommend that Client inform the mental health care provider and the client may need to have a referral letter from their health care provider.
